Inner City Health and Wellness

Donor Support Leads the Way to a New Model of Care for Edmonton’s Most Vulnerable
A New Model of Care for Edmonton’s Most Vulnerable

The Inner City Health initiative requires significant resources, both financial and personal, in order to be successful. It is helpful beyond words to have the endorsement and confidence of the Edmonton community in this work.

With this support, my colleagues and I are providing life-changing, and in many cases, life-saving patient care to people dealing with addiction, mental health issues, and unstable housing or poverty.

Thank you to our donors and our many committed volunteers for your generosity. You are helping Inner City Health and Wellness to change the way in which healthcare is delivered to some of Edmonton’s most vulnerable patients, and for this I am deeply, deeply grateful.

Dr. Kathryn Dong MD, MSc, FRCP
Director, Inner City Health and Wellness Program
Royal Alexandra Hospital

Watch Dr. Kathryn Dong speak about the importance of donor support at the Inner City Health and Wellness Symposium at the Royal Alexandra Hospital on June 13, 2016.
